

Stylish units for aged

A UNIQUE retirement village has sprung up in Rivervale.

The Australian Pensioners' League (WA) has got together with Homeswest to provide 12 units at the corner of Francisco Street and Surrey Road.

The homes, designed by architect John Kannis, are expected to fetch between $55,000 and $75,000.

They are open for inspection this week.

Inquiries to 381 8455.

◀
Father and son architects Theo and John Kannis at the Rivervale units.