

Special honour

M A N D U R A H
architect John Kannis was honoured with a special certificate presented by Sir Charles Court for service to the aged at the recent Australian Pensioners League annual general meeting in Perth.

Mr Kannis recently won a contract for twin six-tower buildings in Perth's central business district.

Also planned for the Australian Pensioners League are units and a hostel in Geraldton and retirement units in Bunbury and Bentley.

Sir Charles Court with Mandurah architect John Kannis.