

New products in entertainment

THE best new product award was shared by Hog's Breath Restaurant and the new Vault Nightclub.

Last year, Hog's Breath manager Craig Timmens was almost ready to throw in the towel after a 'rocky' introduction to Mandurah and a long battle to find a suitable site on which to build the restaurant.

A familiar sight along the east coast, Hog's Breath Restaurants were a new concept to WA.

But Mr Timmens had faith in Mandurah and its future.

He persevered and was rewarded when the restaurant shared awards for excellence in tourism and new product.

Hog's Breath opened in December and currently has a staff of 20.

Mr Timmens put the success of the restaurant down to a unique atmosphere resulting from the hundreds of items of memorabilia which decorate walls and rafters, backed up by great food.

The restaurant's most popular drawcards are mouthwatering prime ribs cooking in a unique 18 hour process.

Mandurah's newest nightclub, The Vault, opened in Smart Street Mall in June and was very well received.

Designed by architect John Kannis, The Vault is an upmarket and modern nightclub with a separate piano bar.

The nightclub boasts state-of-the-art lighting and sound.

The piano bar opens from Wednesdays to Sundays and the nightclub on Fridays and Saturdays.
